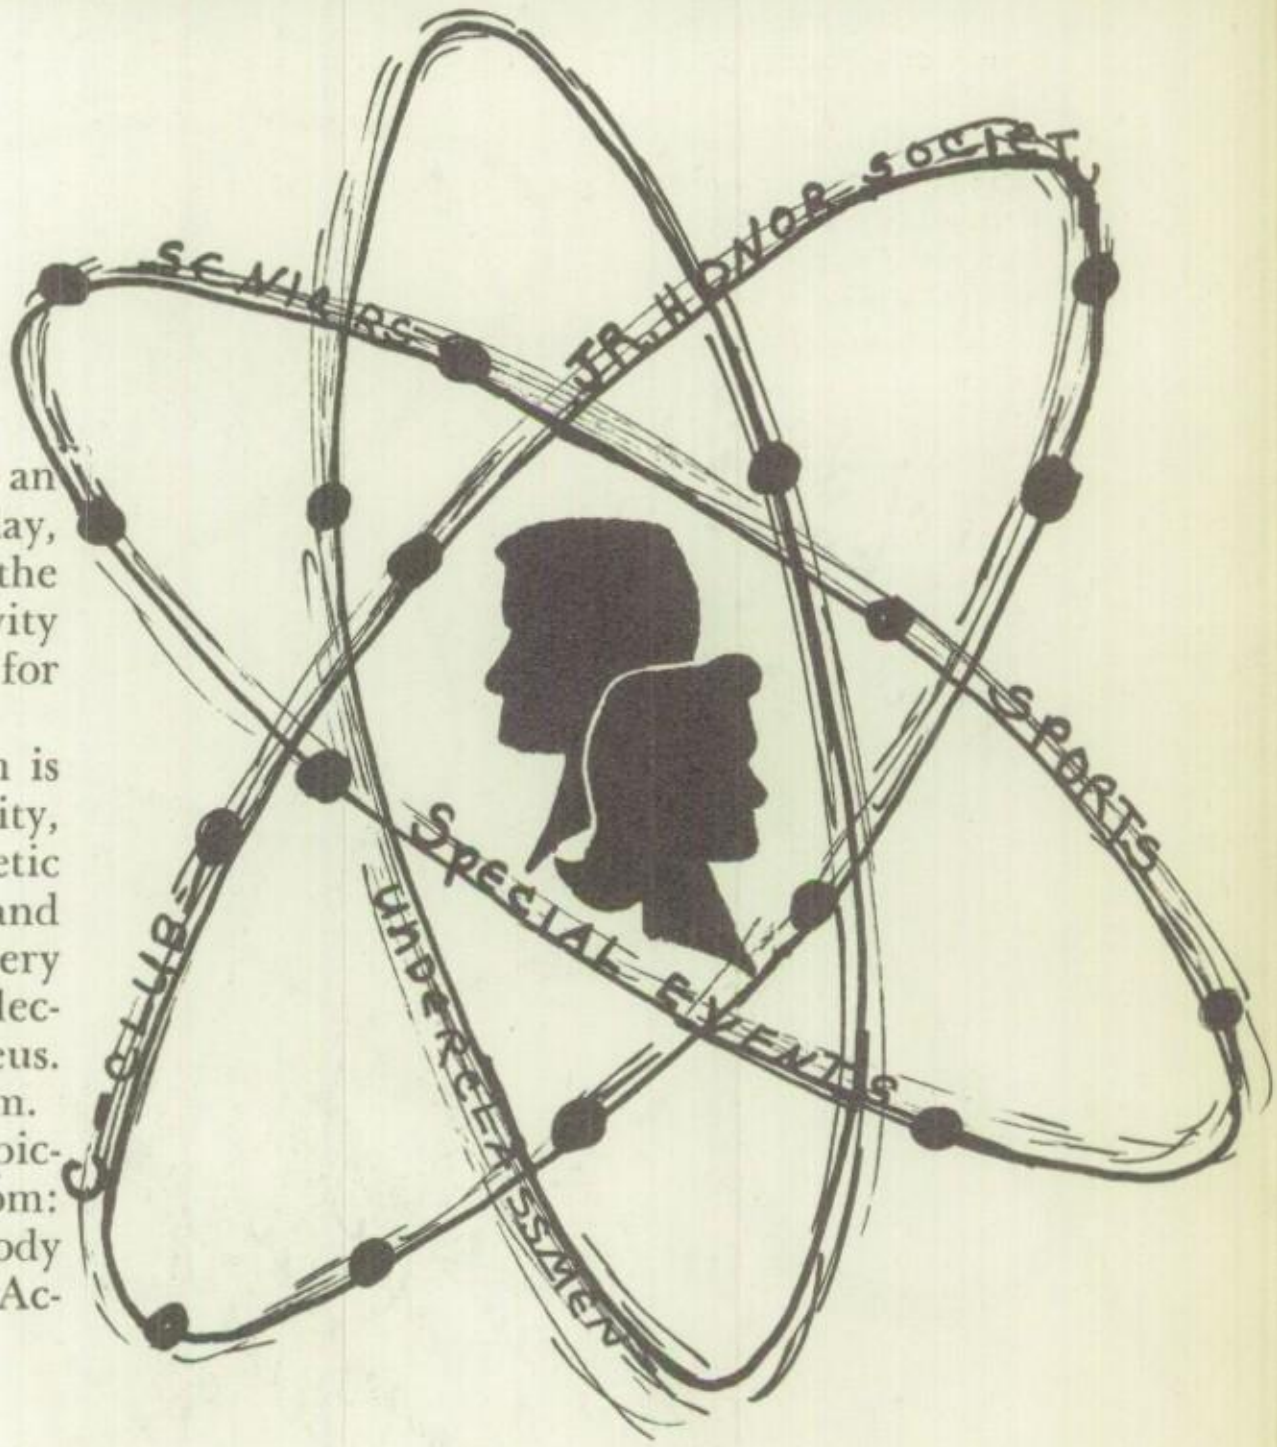
Foreword



Because the atom plays such an important role in our lives today, and because it is symbolic of the spontaneous, yet patterned, activity of school life, we have chosen it for the theme of our Saga this year.

Since the nucleus of the atom is the center of all energy and activity, it can be compared to the energetic student body. The academic and extra-curricular activities can very well be likened to the whirling electrons which surround the nucleus. Thus we have the Creston Atom.

In this 1955 Saga we present pictorially for you this Creston Atom:

The Nucleus: The Student Body

The Electrons: The Student Activities

Dedication

To you, Mr. Norman Tock, the Saga Staff whole-heartedly dedicates the 1955 Saga with respect and in appreciation for all you have done for Creston students in your years of teaching.

Mr. Tock came to Creston in 1925 as a printing teacher. Since that time in addition to his classroom teaching, Mr. Tock has been helpful to the school in many other ways. He acted for several years as Saga adviser. Every year under his supervision are printed the posters and tickets for the Senior Play, the Junior Revue, and many other school activities.

Mr. Tock will always be remembered by his students for his willingness to help them and for his patient understanding.

Class of 1955

"But it was just like yesterday when - - -." How trite and yet how very true. For it seems only yesterday that we first entered Creston. Some of us came as seventh-graders, fresh from grade school, eager and willing. More came in the eighth and ninth grades and still others joined us periodically throughout the years. We came from all over, from city schools and country schools to the school on the crest. And as individual as we were, we learned to become one, a welded, hardworking class.

Even as freshmen we showed that we were a class with true initiative by beginning the annual "St. Pat's Prance." As sophomores we continued our activities by presenting the rollicking "Daisy Dip" with its beautiful Eiffel Tower. We first experimented in democratic living as sophomores, too, when we elected our first class officers and become known as "the class of 55."

We didn't even stop for breath as we plunged into our junior year. First there was the Harvest Hop," then the Amateur Hour and that colossal Junior Revue. And an end to all ends, our lovely Junior-Senior Prom in the Black and Silver Room of the Civic Auditorium. We looked at the seniors present and said, "Next year it will be our turn."

And then "our turn" came. A glorious senior year! It started with the election of a dazzling homecoming court and the co-sponsorship of the Homecoming with the Alumni Association.
For our project we chose to buy new curtains for the stage and we worked hard to earn the money by sponsoring the "Mid-term Mingle" and many other projects. We kept them in stitches with our hilarious senior play, "Money Mad!" With the always generous help of Miss Lois Conrad our play packed them in and sent them away saying, "Marvelous!" Our Senior Banquet at Second Congregational Church and Senior Dress-up Day brought our year to a close as we readied ourselves for commencement itself.

And now it is over and we look out into a whole new life. Our years of fun and friendship have drawn to a close and we must now leave "our home" for so many years. But truly, it did seem "only yesterday."

Patricia Agema: "Silence is golden, but then she's a redhead."

Sharon Allchin: "The fun just twinkles in her eyes."

Ethel Altman: "She saw the world and came back to tell us about it."

Marilyn Anderberg: "I'll be merry and free;"

Rhoda Anderson: "Keep appearances what ever you do."

Gary Babcock: "A little nonsense now and then is relished by the wisest men."

Frances Bailey: "You have known her by the merriment that sparkles in her eyes."

Daniel Balbach: "When better men are made they will have to use him as a pattern."

Burling Barnhart: "A large part of virtue consists in good habits;"

Nancy Whitworth: "Did you ever see a dream walking."

Lois Wielhouwer: "She has a way and its the right way."

Lois Wigent: "Shy and quiet is this lass, but an asset to our class."

John Williams: "What's everybody's hurry? Rome wasn't built in a day."

Donald Wilkens: "It is well for one to know more than he says."

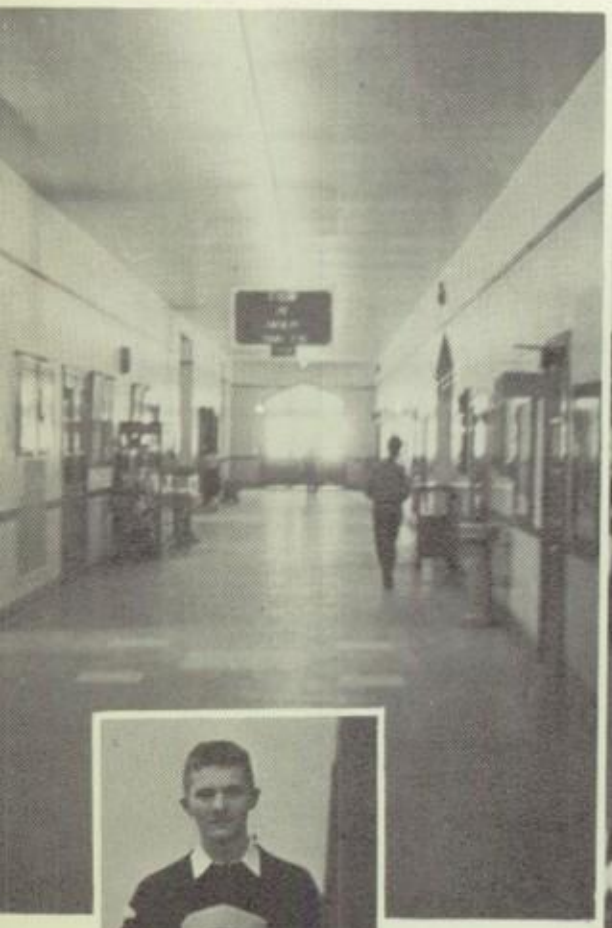
Charles Williamson: "To worry little, to study less, is my idea of happiness."

Carole Woolworth: "The great thing in this world is not so much where we are but in what direction we are moving."

Janet Woodworth: "We grant altho' she has much wit, she's very shy in using it."

Marilyn Terrell: "Sweet, an excellent thing in women."

Carol Zaremba: "How she seems to enjoy life."



Class Song

The stately halls of Creston,
The friends we've made so true,
Will help us to remember
The sad and good times too.
And though our paths may differ,
They'll always come out right,
If we keep our Alma Mater
And her ideals in sight.
We hail thee, oh Creston,
We always will be true;
And through our life's long story
We'll praise the maize and blue.
Oh, honored halls of Creston,
We bid you fond adieu;
The class of Nineteen Fifty Five
Will always cherish you.

Class of 1956

Before election of officers the Junior Class put on a pep assembly preceding the Creston-South football game. The assembly was a big success because of its originality.

Class officers elected for the year were Chuck Unseld, President; Jo Wooten, Vice President; Ruth Visner, Secretary; Katie Davis, Treasurer.

The annual "Harvest Hop" dance was based around the theme, "Autumn Nocturne." The highlight of the dance was the intermission in which a king and queen, Bill Anderson and Barb Wetzel, were chosen.

The class also sponsored some of the dances after the football and basketball games.

The Mistress and Master of Ceremonies for the Amateur Hour were Diane Stolorow and Chuck Unseld. The best acts were taken from the Amateur Hour and displayed in the Junior Revue which used as its theme "Around the World." The Revue was a great success and the class enjoyed putting it on.

We wish to express our gratitude to our advisor, Mr. Martin VanWingen, for his helpful guidance through our junior year at Creston. It was a wonderful year — a year we, the Juniors of '55, will never forget.

Mr. Howard Wickett

A well known figure around Creston, one who can very well represent the nucleus around which our school revolves, is that of Mr. Howard W. Wickett. Mr. Wickett has been the principal of Creston for many years and has truly become a part of the school. The students always find Mr. Wickett willing to support the annual events at Creston or to back any new ideas that he feels will contribute to a well-rounded education at Creston.

The protons and neutrons of this nucleus represent those people who help in the job of keeping our school on its orbit: Miss Dorothy Lawyer, assistant principal; Mr. Lowell McDougal, personnel director; Mr. Orlo Scoville, truant officer; and the two clerks, Mrs. Ruth Voshel and Mrs. Margaret Marvel.

Last, but not least, we have the teachers here at Creston who, like electrons, revolve around the nucleus of the school. With the coming of the fall season several new teachers arrived at Creston: Mrs. Joanne England and Miss Peggy Smith, home economics teachers; Mr. Harold Feringa, seventh grade teacher; and Miss Elizabeth Schneider, English teacher. Between semesters Creston received two more new teachers: Mr. David England, math and history teacher; and Mrs. Edith Doerr, home economics teacher. Mr. Richard Howland, retail selling teacher, also returned to Creston after a semester's absence.

During this past year everyone at Creston felt a great loss with the deaths of Mr. Robert Linden and Miss Lila Koch.

Fifth row: Gordon Sweers, Dave Dipple.

Student Council

Creston's Student Council was very active this year under the supervision of President Dan Balbach and the patient assistance of advisor Mr. Knutson.

This year the club was planning to erect a cement polar bear in front of school to symbolize the school's emblem in addition to adding shrubbery and a flower well to the landscape.

The annual Student Council Manual was again edited this year for the benefit of students in telling of the school program and activities.

Inter-High representatives were Jackie Bresnahan, Sally Kerkbride, John Gorman, and Danny Balbach.

The other officers were: Vice-President, Bill Dipple; Secretary, Sally Kirkbride; and Treasurer, Dave Bollot.

Fourth Row: Terry Butler, Will Hooker, Glenn Kuklewski, Bill Miles, Leonard Sweeris, Don VanBall, Dave Goodman, Paul Storn, Dave Gordon, Tony Powell, Nancy McKay.

The Courtesy Squad is an organization of Senior High boys and girls who offer their services to keep Creston's halls in good order. The members are posted in the halls during the school day to keep students from creating a disturbance. Students who violate the rules of the school or who are in the halls without a hall pass are reported to the "Courtesy Court." Court sessions are held every Wednesday after school and violators are punished. These sessions are attended by the violater and the hall guard who reported him. The officers this year were, president, Bill Dippel; vice-president, Jim Obuchowski; secretary, Donna Swart; and student council representative, Tony Powell. Miss Mary Windt is the sponsor.

Echo Staff

The Creston Echo, our official school newspaper, has once again proved that it is a top-flight publication by receiving the All-American award from the National Scholastic Press Association, and an International Honor Rating from the Quill and Scroll Society.

Judy Siereveld, Circulation Manager; Marcia Stover, Business Manager; Diane Stanley, Advertising Manager.

Shirley Berkowitz, Feature Editor; Janice Geasler, News Editor; Mary Gillette, News Editor.

Mr. VanKrimpen, Advisor; Sarah Drasin, Editor-in-Chief; Jackie Bresnahan, Managing Editor.

The copy for the paper is written by an eleventh-grade journalism class and edited and prepared for the printer by senior editors. The advertising staff, which consists of senior high students, solicits the ads and prepares the copy.

On every other Friday, when the Echo is released, the circulation staff sees that every subscriber receives a copy.

The Cub Reporter's Club, consisting of junior high students, is for the benefit of those younger pupils who are interested in journalism.

rlene Doubledee, Marilyn Anderberg, Bette Skodsholm, Copyreaders; ncy Oom, Photographer.

Saga Staff

The Saga Staff is responsible for the publication of the "Creston Saga." The staff members put their efforts and talents to work so that students will have a yearbook filled with happy memories of days at Creston. Wanting a modern theme this year the staff chose atomic energy. During the year the pictures of students, faculty, and clubs were taken and the staff members set to work amid brushes, pencils, glue, and pictures to lay out pages of the "55 Saga." Judy De Vlieger was editor-in-chief and Mary Straayer, was managing editor. Other editors were Barbara Kainz, assistant manager; Mary Kay Powers, seniors; Beverly De Haan, underclass; Charlene Stinson, faculty; Darlene Doubledee, features and special events; Ethel Altman, clubs; Ted Markus, sports; Francis Bailey, art; and Joanne Wagenaar, literary.

Latin Club

Officers: Wes Hendricks, Dale Granger, Larry Izenbart, Linda Slykhouse, Mary Ann VanderVelde.

The purpose of the Creston Latin Club is to promote interest in Latin at Creston. The club is open to all second year Latin students.

Under the direction of Mrs. Sadie Stowell, the Latin Club has had a very active year. At Christmas they sent a basket of food and gifts to a needy family. A gift was also sent to Bruno, the club's adopted Roman boy. In the spring an open house was held to interest new students in taking Latin. In addition several club parties were enjoyed by the members.

The Junior Y-Teen Club is made up of seventh and eighth graders who meet on alternate Wednesdays. Miss Croninger is their sponsor.

The ninth grade girls are the 9-Y-Teen Club which also meets on alternate Wednesdays. Miss Matthews is their sponsor.

The Senior Y-Teens are the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade girls. They also meet every other Wednesday. Their advisor is Miss Bean.

All the clubs had an active year that included several sales and some parties at the Y. W. C. A.

Bob Fonger and Roger Geske preparing a Thanksgiving basket.

To create, maintain, and establish throughout the school and community high standards of Christian Character, is the pledge of the Hi-Y Club. The club is open to all senior high boys and meetings are held every Wednesday morning at eight o'clock. The members are divided in two teams. These teams compete against the other high school Hi-Y teams in basketball. Other activities of the club include after-school sales, selling paddle pops at the games, and dances after the games.

This year at Thanksgiving, the club gave a Thanksgiving basket to a needy family.

The officers of the club this year were: Jim Lambert, president; Chuck Unseld, vice president; and secretary; and Tony Powell Treasure. The sponsorer of the club this year was Mr. Feringa.

C-Club Officers: Bill Crame, Bucky Ash, Bill Anderson.

The main project of the C-Club this past year was the basketball game between the members of the C-Club and the faculty. Even though the varsity club was defeated in the game, they earned approximately $250. This money, along with other profits earned on various sales, will be used in the purchase of a new lens for the athletic department's moving picture camera. The purpose will be to produce sharper pictures of the athletic teams in action.

A new attraction this year was the all-city V-Hop. This dance was sponsored cooperatively by the various athletic clubs in the city.

Elections in the C-Club will be held at the start of the second semester in the future. Newly elected officers are Bill Anderson, president; Bucky Ash, vice president; and Bill Crame, secretary-treasurer.

The Amicitia Club, one of the largest and busiest clubs in the school, was very busy active this year. The main purpose of the club is to create friendship among the junior and senior girls.

This year the club was sponsored by Miss Dunham. Some of the activities were, the initiation which was held at Briggs Park. At Thanksgiving and Christmas they gave food to needy families. At Christmas a tree was bought and put in the front hall where it was decorated by the members. They also sponsored "The Valentine Ball" which was the biggest event of the year.

The Aurora Borealis Club is an organization of tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade girls who are working for athletic honors.

The girls are divided into three groups letters, numeral, and all city. The letters are the girls who are just starting their first year of A. B. The numerals are the girls who are in their second year of A. B. and the all city group is the girls who are in their third year.

Each group is divided into teams that compete in volley ball, field ball and other competitive games.

In the spring Miss Frances Kilstrom, advisor, presents the awards. The numerals receive their numerals. The letters their letters, and the all city girls their all city honor pin.

The R.O.T.C. under the supervision of Sgt. First Class Friske has had a busy year supporting its many projects.

The Bars and Chevrons Club, which is a branch of this organization, took an active part in school sales and in the annual Military Ball, held in January at South High School in conjunction with Union and South's military units. For the first time a queen of the Ball was crowned. Jacquelyn Bresnahan, a senior at Creston, was voted this honor.

Horizon

"As horizons are ever changing and always distant I shall not stand still and look into their purple shadows. Instead, I shall seek the higher purposes and the new adventures that lie beyond. I shall reach ever outward to the horizon that is always just beyond my grasp." These words are known as the desire of all Horizon Girls.

The insignia of the Horizon Clubs, pictured above, is the crossed logs and flame of Camp Fire with three mountain peaks on the horizon. The three peaks might well represent the girl's three great objectives: friends, fine personalities, and service to others.

To attain the first of these objectives, Horizon Girls hold dances, hayrides, social parties, teas, and house-parties. Various clubs have at their group meetings speakers who talk on developing better personalities and character traits. Giving service to the surrounding community is an outstanding characteristic of Horizon Girls. They work in hospitals as Hospital Aides; and serve on community drives such as Cancer, Red Feather, and Red Cross. Nearly every group helps out some family at Christmas and Thanksgiving.

This year the Horizon Clubs at Creston donated the flowers for the flowerwell in the front hall. They will also care for the flowers in the following years and replace any that die.

Although Horizon Clubs are an outgrowth of Camp Fire, any girls without Camp Fire experience are especially welcome.

The Bible Club is a Christian nonsectarian club. They meet every Friday morning in Room 2 before school. The meetings are spent singing hymns and listening to speakers. Several exchange meetings were held with the Bible Clubs from Lee High and Central High. The club is connected with Youth for Christ and several speakers from Youth for Christ International were present at meetings. The officers were President, Paul Storm; Vice President, Dorothy Asman; Secretary & Treasurer, Connie Berg; and Student Council Representative, Dave Gordon. Mr. Constant is the sponsor.

"We Three Kings"

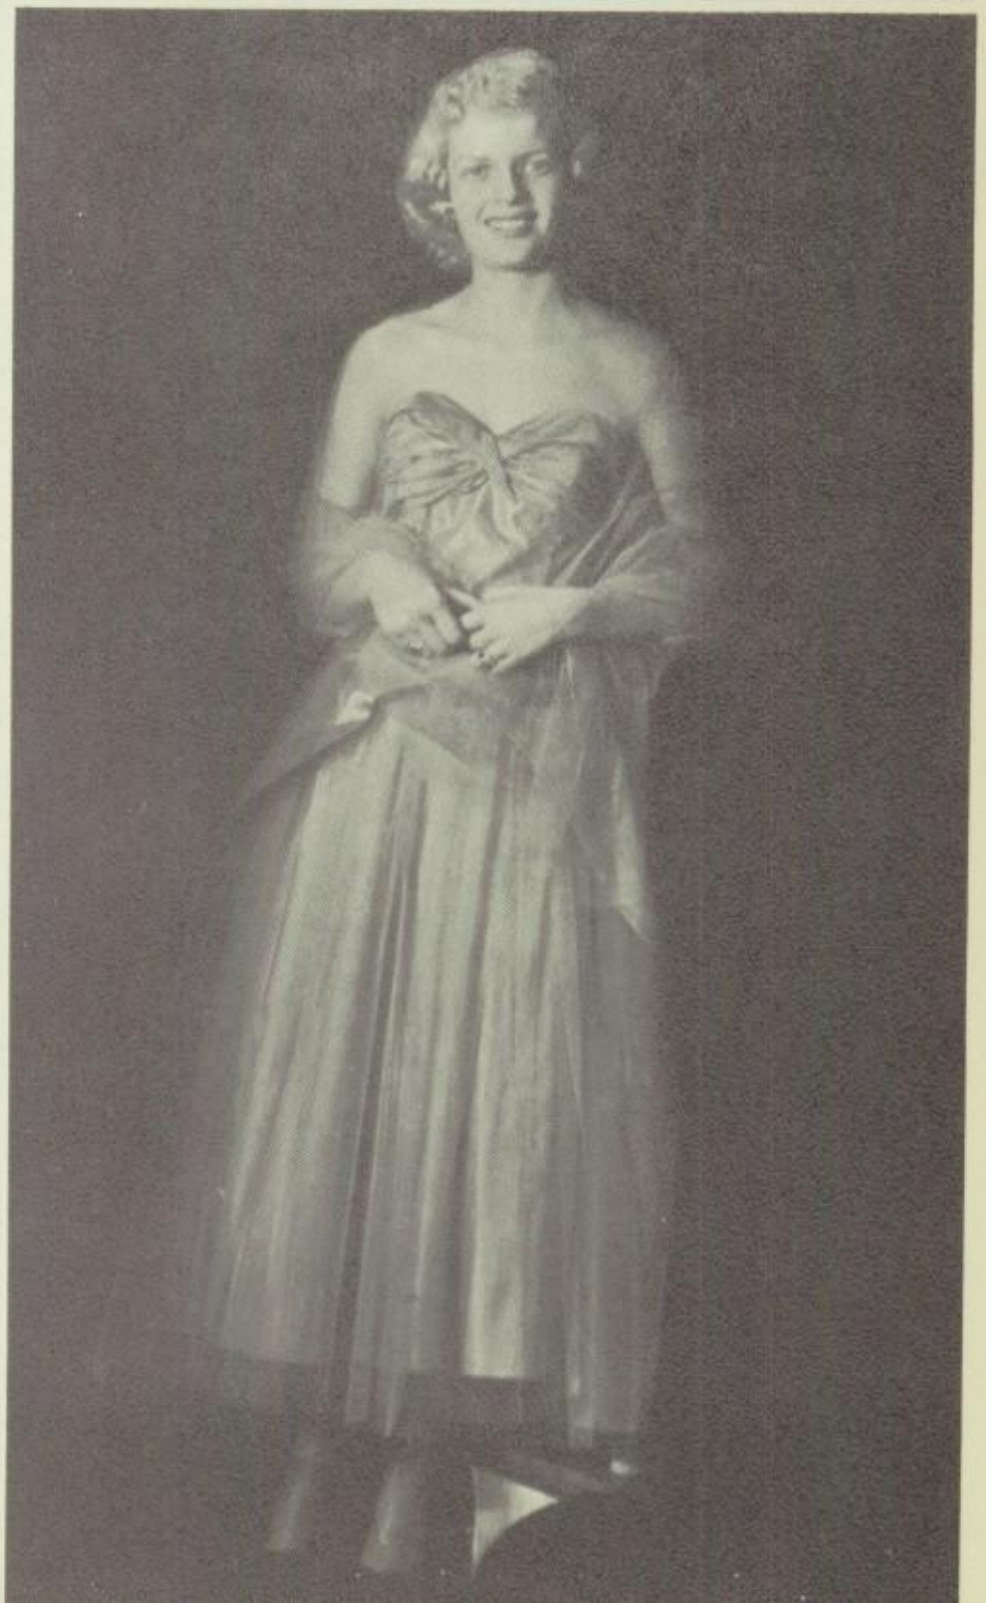
Gloria

Following a tradition set at Creston High School nineteen years ago, the music department and the dramatics class co-operated to present the beautiful Christmas story, Gloria.

Elizabeth was played by Jacquelyn Bresnahan; Judah by Noel Cobb; Saradin by Larry Isenbart.

Homecoming

In the coolness of the evening at the Creston-Union football game October 8 Janet Buursma, escorted by Dave Mills, was crowned queen of the annual Homecoming. In the royal court were Sally Kirkbride, Jackie Bresnahan, Pat Tobin, and Marcia Strong. The Homecoming Dance was held in the Black and Silver Room of the Civic Auditorium. A good time was had by all who attended.

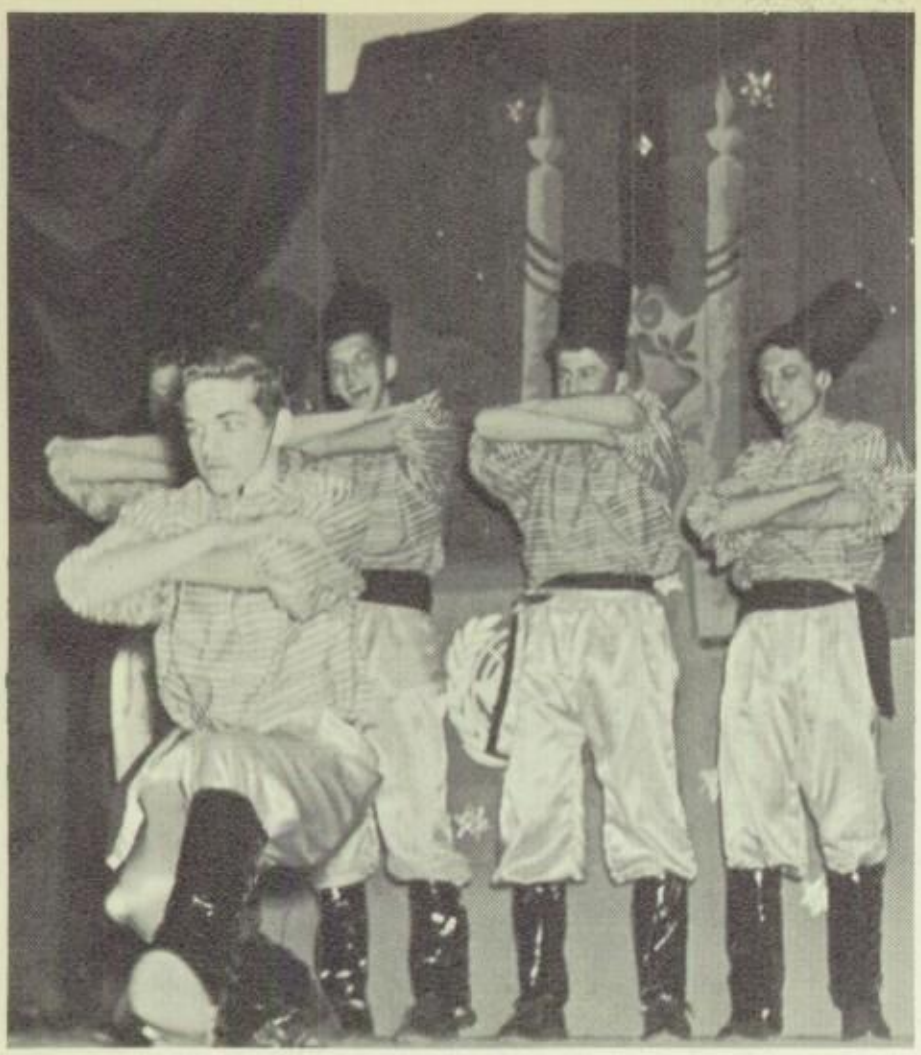


Junior Review

"The Fall and Rise of Bubbleonia," a mythical mountain country presenting a problem to the U. N., was the situation presented and solved in the annual Junior Revue. Cast in the speaking roles were Chuck Unseld, Virginia Phillips, Joal Ripstra, and Virginia Saunders.

When Bubbleonia was to be evicted from its mountain, the U. N. delegate was given an opportunity to settle her country anywhere in the world. So she was given a first-hand glimpse of the main attractions from many countries. Fencers from France, Cossacks from Russia, a Harem from Persia, and many other fascinating numbers were presented for her consideration. As the story ended, Bubbleonia floated merrily in New York Harbor.

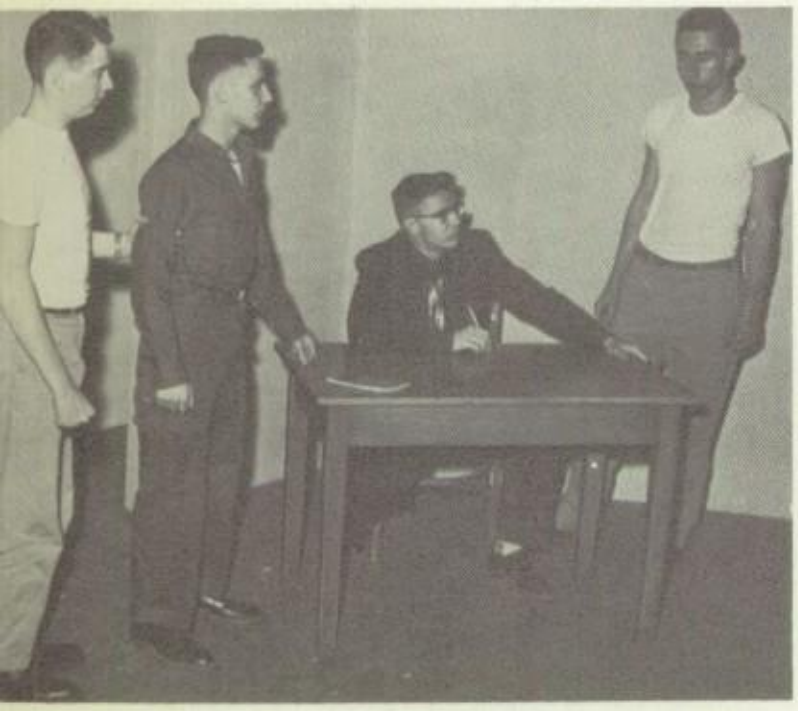
Barbara Margoles, Loretta Almerigi, and Charlene Chadwick were the dance directors. General directors of the show were Miss Lally, Mr. Welch, and Mr. Rowell. Mr. VanWingen was the class adviser.



"When he sent for you tonite, I hoped he was going to talk."

"Don't pay any attention to her; Chump, she's the gauchiest girl I know."

One Acts



"Wilson, you stay in the ante-room with the door open."

"I never open other peoples mail!"

"Just keep calm. I promise to get your father dressed properly before Suzanne sees him."

This year for the first time the traditional one-act plays were presented in two performances. "Sugar and Spice," a hilarious comedy, and "High Window," a mystery melodrama, were presented in a matinee showing in November. These two plays again presented in February, in a program sponsored jointly by the dramatics department and the P.T.A. along with a third play "The Valiant," a moving tragedy.

The members of the casts were Peri-ann Goodrich, Sally Kirkbride, Larry Izenbart, Dianne Stolorow, and Gary Babcock in "High Window"; Bette Skodsholm, Sharon Cunningham, Shirley Berkowitz, Dave Mills, and James White in "Sugar and Spice"; and Fred Farran, Dick Irwin, Ed Farran, Sarah Drasin, Jack Shultz, and Roger Geske in "The Valiant."

Assistant directors for the plays were Mary Straayer, Carolyn De Young, and Janice Keener respectively.

Faculty Directors were Miss Lois Conard and Mr. John Rowell.

"I was very pleased with the football team this past season, not because of the one six loss one tie record, but because of the general team spirit and I'm sure that we will have an improved ball club next year," commented head football coach Don Black on the 1954 football season. The Creston Polar Bears, sporting new uniforms, took the field against Holland on September 18, and batted to a 13 to 13 tie in the opening game of the season. The defending city-league champions Catholic Central squad defeated the Bears on the following weekend, 27 to 0. Creston traveled to Grand Haven on October 1, and were subdued by a 31 to 0 score. The Polar Bears came back on the following week to play one of the best games of the season, Union, who went on to capture the championship, provided the opposition, and managed to win, 6 to 0. Creston was beaten in the next three games successive weeks by South, 20 to 0, Central, 19 to 12, and Muskegon Catholic, 21 to 7. The Polar Bears closed out their season with a 15 to 14 victory over Ottawa.

Varsity Cagers

"I was very satisfied with the way the boys played this year. They played hard in every game, and it wasn't because of the lack of desire that we lost most of our games this year," stated Bob Johnson, head basketball coach.

The 1954-55 Polar Bear basketball squad compiled a three win 14 loss record this season while playing with nearly an all junior squad. Creston's three wins came at the hands of Central and South in city-league play, and Muskegon Catholic in non-league competition.

The Bears finished in last place in the city-league this year but should improve its place in the standings next year because they will be playing with a thoroughly seasoned squad.

L'ENVOI

(with apologies to Kipling)

When the Saga's last picture was taken,
And the copy was written and set;
When the pages were laid out and mounted,
And the bills were assembled and met –
We did rest; and, faith, we did need it –
Sat down for an hour or two –
Till the sponsor of Creston's Saga
Did set us to work* anew.
